LIBATION RITUAL

Grapes come in many different shapes, sizes, colors, flavors, and aromas. Each variety has unique characteristics, including how it grows, its suitability for different regions and climates, and its winemaking features. The term "must" refer to the freshly pressed grape juice that is eventually fermented into wine.

The solid components of the grape, such as the seeds, stems, and skins, are called "pomace".

Let us introduce you to wines that are of very high quality and delicious to drink in tropical areas so that you will feel a different pleasure from what you feel in your country. With the many types of wine that we have prepared, we would like to pamper your tongue by trying world-class wines at The Bale Nusa Dua.

Which will be served by our Sommelier.
